

INQUIRER'S CLASS

An Inquirer's Class is offered several times a year for new members and visitors. We explore such topics as our Presbyterians beliefs and heritage, the history and organization of our church, and any other areas of interest to those attending. Child care will be provided. Please see Coleta Stephenson or Pastor Stanley for more information.

"All scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, so that everyone who belongs to God may be proficient, equipped for every good work." 2 Timothy 3:16-17

SUNDAY CLASSES

(Mornings at 11am)

G.W.I.P. (God's Works in Progress), a gathering of younger adults meets in room 146 with Krystal Leedy. The group focuses on marriage and family issues as well as Biblical wisdom for living with the challenges that face those in these busy and sometimes chaotic times in their lives.

The Explorer's Class meets in the library and they are currently studying Joshua, the Bible's story of Israel settling the promised land and its influence on the present day Middle East situation. Mary Gaines and Quinton Everest facilitate this study.

The Vineyard Class, which meets in the Music Room, begins a new series on February 21 based on the bestselling book, "Same Kind of Different as Me." There will be audio visual presentations as well as plenty of time for discussion. This study is facilitated by Sandy and Sean Althaus.

WEEKDAY CLASSES

Monday ~ Small Group Home Bible Studies

First & Third Mondays
7-9pm in participants' homes

Two new small group home Bible studies have just begun, and there is still room! The two groups will enjoy fellowship and prayer together and begin a six-session Bible study on the book of James on February 1. Contact Ann Stewart to be welcomed into one of these groups.

Tuesday ~ Disciple Bible Study I Room 147 ~ 6-8:30pm

DBS I: Becoming Disciples Through Bible Study is an overview Bible study from creation in Genesis to the New Jerusalem of Revelation. This study is open to those who are totally new to the Bible, as well as those who have participated in previous Bible study. DBS offers a safe environment in which to ask questions and grow in faith.

Begins September 1 and ends May 25.

Cost: $34 for materials *

Childcare provided, if needed.

Facilitators: Anne Frohlich, Pastor Stanley.

Wednesday ~ Women's Bible Study

Sanctuary ~ 9:15am

The women series by Beth Moore entitled "Believing God" will conclude on March 10. A three-week Lenten class will begin on March 17. New ladies are invited.

Thursday ~ Disciple Bible Study II

Library ~ 6-8:30pm

DBS II: Into the Word Into the World. This disciple study provides a deeper biblical understanding by viewing in more detail the following four books: Genesis, Exodus, Luke, and Acts. Designed for those who have completed the Disciple I overview. Discussion each week applies God's words to our lives and gives us opportunities to raise questions.

Begins in September 3 and ends May 25.

Cost: $34 for materials *

Childcare provided, if needed.

Facilitators:

Kent White and Norma Walston.

Saturday ~ Men's Small Group Study

The men meet on Saturday mornings at 8am in the Library for their small group meeting, the exception being the second Saturday at which time they meet for breakfast in the Narthex. Dick Miller is leading the group in a look at the great hymns of the church.

* Scholarships available. See Pastor Stanley
